- Each speaker must take two POIs except they do not take POIs requested less than 30 seconds after taking a POI.
- When there is an impromptu topic for a debate, logic and reasons should be given just as much weight as a debater citing a study/statistic/fact.

PUBLIC FORUM DEBATE

1. PUBLIC FORUM TOPIC

Resolved: The United States federal government should substantially increase its military presence in the Arctic.

2. Debate Speaking Times

When the rooms get posted in Zoom, then debaters go to their debates and begin immediately.

Beginning of the Debate: Debaters are required to share their google drive/dropbox/one drive for sharing evidence. Shared evidence may not be used in debates by the team receiving the evidence.

Each debater gives 2 speeches and engages in 1 crossfire plus the grand crossfire.

- 1 Pro Constructive: 4 minutes, present pro case
- 1 Con Constructive: 4 minutes, present con case
- Crossfire (questions) 3 minutes between 1 Pro and 1 Con
- 2 Pro Rebuttal: 4 minutes, refute con case
- 2 Con Rebuttal: 4 minutes, refute pro case
- Crossfire (questions) 3 minutes between 2 Pro and 2 Con
- 1 Pro Summary: 3 minutes, defend pro case and/or address key points of clash
- 1 Con Summary: 3 minutes, defend con case and/or address key points of clash
- Grand Crossfire (questions) 3 minutes among all debaters
- 2 Pro Final Focus: 3 minutes, give reasons from previous speeches to vote for pro
- 2 Con Final Focus: 3 minutes, give reasons from previous speeches to vote for con

4 min. prep. during the debate for each team to use as they choose before their speeches or before crossfire. No prep time prior to the debate.

3. Debating Rules—OUR RULES ARE UNIQUE TO OUR TOURNAMENT

- Debaters must be 10-14 years of age or receive Jim Hanson's permission to debate in this tournament.
- Pro teams of two debaters (1Pro debater and 2Pro debater) defend the topic. Con teams reject the topic. Con teams of two debaters (1Con debater and 2Con debater) reject the topic.
- Con teams cannot run counterplans; they must discuss the topic/the current policies.

Speaker Duties:

1Case Speeches: Present Case. Do not respond to opponent's case in this speech except minimally.

2Rebuttal Speeches: Respond to your Opponent's Case. Do not respond to responses to your case except minimally.

1Summary Speeches: Defend Your Case/Crystalize. Do not respond to your opponent's case except minimally.

2FinalFocus Speeches: Address Key Arguments and Weigh.

WE DO NOT WANT PF DEBATERS SPREADING TO HIT BOTH CASES IN THEIR SPEECHES—DO NOT DO THAT. ONLY THE FINAL FOCUS DIRECTLY ADDRESSES BOTH CASES IN THEIR SPEECH.

- Debaters use prepared materials in their debates. Debaters may/should use printed materials and/or laptops during the debate.
- You may also access the internet including during the debate (but you CANNOT communicate with any person including a coach or parent unless it is an emergency).
- No POIs, No heckling. No Coin tosses.
- Debaters may speak to teammates who are speaking BRIEFLY AND RARELY and can pass notes or text messages/chat. Remember, interrupting your debate partner can hurt their debating—do it at most once or twice during an entire speech and only in urgent situations.
- Use your own flow paper.
- Coaching help prior to the debate is fine but the debate starts on time. No coaching during the debate.

HIGH SCHOOL DEBATE

1. High School LD Debate Topic

Resolved: Civil disobedience in a democracy is morally justified.

2. High School LD Debating Times

- Before you start, establish means for sharing evidence (google drive, drop box, one drive, email chain, etc.)
- First Affirmative: 6 minutes
- Negative questions Affirmative: 3 minutes
- First Negative: 7 minutes
- Affirmative questions Negative: 3 minutes
- First Affirmative Rebuttal: 4 minutes
- Negative Rebuttal: 6 minutes

SPEAKING EVENTS

1. Events

- We offer 5 Events to Enter: Impromptu, Extemp, PowerPoint, Platform, Interp.
- Reminder: You can do AT MOST two speech events. If you are doing debate, you can only enter one event.
- Reminder: If you are doing debate, you can do only ONE speech event.
- IMPORTANT NOTE: You present your speech THREE TIMES—once in round 1, once in round 2, and once in round 3. (Impromptu and Extemp do three different speeches in round 1, 2, and 3).

2. Speech Times

- Impromptu ALL ages: 6 minutes (includes preparation)
- Extemp ALL ages:
 - questions provided Thursday evening, the week of the tournament
 - elementary 5 minute speech
 - middle school and high school 7 minute speech.
- FOR POWERPOINT, PLATFORM, AND INTERP SPEECHES:
 - Elementary speeches: 5 minutes.
 - Middle School speeches: 7 minutes.
 - High School speeches: 10 minutes.

3. Event Rules

- Impromptu: You'll be given 3 topics and you chose one of them to speak on. You have 6 minutes total to prepare AND also to present. You cannot read/look at notes made before you received the topic, the internet, etc. during prep time. You can outline your speech on a notecard, sheet of paper, or an electronic device (but again, no researching on the internet, looking at files on your electronic device).
- Extemp: You'll be given 3 questions on current events/issues to speak on Thursday evening before the tournament. YOU CAN look at the internet and/or an extemp tub/files. You can and should outline your speech including the question as it was worded, use multiple source citations, and provide analysis answering the question you chose. You speak for 5 minutes answering the question (elementary) or 7 minutes (middle school and high school). YES—YOU CAN DO DEBATE AND EXTEMP.
- PowerPoint: You present on any topic using a PowerPoint/Google Slides/Similar throughout the speech. You should use a combination of bullets, pictures, and animation to create a visually interesting and well supported speech. 5 minutes elementary, 7 minutes middle school, 10 minutes high school.
- Platform: You present an informative, persuasive, or humorous speech on a topic of your choice. Your speech should be a written/typed manuscript that you have memorized or that you use notes very minimally when you present. Your speech should include source citations, clever and engaging wording, and have a purpose to inform, persuade or entertain your audience. You speak for 5 minutes (elementary), 7 minutes (middle school), or 10 minutes (high school).
- Interp: You present poetry, prose and/or play material cut to advance a point/insight you wish to communicate. In addition to the material that you perform, you also have an introduction stating the point/insight made by the material, the author(s) of the material, and the title of the piece(s). Movement of your feet should be kept to a minimum usually at most one step from your starting standing position. You perform for 5 minutes (elementary), 7 minutes (middle school), or 10 minutes (high school).
- You may not write speeches using ChatGPT/similar other than to do research.

1. PARENTS

We welcome parents supporting their children's growth as speakers! We ask that you abide by our tournament rules:

- You may watch your child debate in their debating/speaking room.
- No video recording, no photographs, no screen shots during debate or speech rounds.
- Please, no talking with students from other schools.
- Remain neutral and quiet during the round. You may applaud for all competitors after the final speech.
- We encourage you to be supportive of your debater/speaker.
- Complaint about a judge? Two things: 1) Remember not everyone agrees even if you feel really strongly your child should have won. 2) If a judge violated a rule and especially if they did not treat students with courtesy and respect—please report it to your coach who can bring the issue to the attention of the tournament directors.

2. JUDGES

Thank you for serving as a judge. You are helping students grow and become better communicators.

- ALL Judges: Carefully read and follow the judging instructions given to you.

Debate Ballots are sent via email. Judges do the following at the end of a round:

1. ASAP, EMAIL REPLY your ballot with the winner and speaker points for the debate.
 2. Give constructive feedback to debaters orally (you don't do this for speaking events).
 3. After oral feedback, submit Reason for Decision and Comments Form: with 1) Arguments that persuaded you to vote for the team you did; 2) at least 1 good thing each debater did; 3) at least 1 thing each debater needs to improve on.
- ALL Judges carefully read and follow the judging instructions given to you.

Speech Ballots are sent via email. Judges do the following at the end of a round:

1. ASAP, EMAIL REPLY your ballot with the rankings and speaker points.
2. Give Feedback for each and every speaker you judged using the Online Form Link provided.

3. COACHES

We want to make sure you and your team know what is going on—topics, pairings, etc.

- All announcements and postings will happen on Zoom.
- We will also do announcements in the Lobby or Auditorium AND postings online at forensicstournament.net page for our tournament.
- Issues/concerns during the tournament—please contact Jim Hanson (room 208).
- Have a judge no show before the tournament starts? Notify Jim Hanson (hansonj@seattleu.edu) as soon as possible and provide a replacement judge.

4. SOMEONE TREAT YOU POORLY? AN ISSUE? A PROBLEM?

Please contact your coach and coaches should contact Jim Hanson, Tournament Director. We want to help work out problems and make the tournament a positive, inclusive experience for you.

At all times, participants are expected to treat everyone at the tournament with respect, kindness, and professionalism.

From me and all of the Seattle Debate Union—welcome to the tournament! :)

Jim Hanson, Director of Forensics (Speech and Debate) and the SU team!
